*Specials for Coko's menu:

The narrative woven into these wines and their connection to Coko's menu is one of deep-rooted heritage and timeless traditions, brought vividly into the present. Crafted from indigenous grape varieties using age-old methods, these wines embody a rich tapestry of cultural legacy. They are the work of a collaborative network of winemakers, whose shared efforts have played a crucial role in evolving and restoring methods in an industry where quality and production is valued and garnered by profitability and ease. This is the story we aspire to convey when discussing these wines and their place on this menu. Both the cuisine and the wines are intricately linked through a dedication to preserving tradition, while simultaneously embracing the future. Together, they narrate a tale of friendship, resilience, and renewal, reflecting a harmonious blend of past and present.
